The Filthies to play "Condorstown" at Rabobank

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Bakersfield - This Saturday night, October 22nd, sports and music culture meet during the opening night hockey game of the Bakersfield Condors against the Salmon Kings. Local rural rock punksters, the Filthies will be performing their minor hockey league anthem titled, "Condorstown". Created just for the Condors team and to help uplift local hockey culture, "Condorstown" is just one of many great hockey songs to be performed this season with the Condors. The Filthies will be performing outside of the Rabobank arena (6pm-7pm) and inside the Rabobank (1st intermission) with punk pop favorites like "Donut Shop", "You Look Dead to Me" as well as their new anthem, "Condorstown".

The idea spawned from local author of Lords: Part One, N.L. Belardes, who co-wrote "Condorstown" with the Filthies:

"I co-wrote/inspired several songs for the upcoming CD, Growing up Fighting: Bakersfield Hockey Vol. 1, including, "Condorstown", "Bobblehead", and "Zamboni Zombie". I was a hockey player for years and used to listen to Canadian punk hockey compilation CDs. When I started helping out the local music scene I instantly thought, "We can do this in America!" and then even better, "We can do this in Bakersfield!" The Condors love the idea and are even having some of the players sing on the CD."

The Filthies are just one of many Bakersfield bands to be playing the Rabobank during Saturday night home games. There are thirteen Saturday home dates in all, each featuring a song from Noveltown's highly anticipated compilation CD of Bakersfield bands: Growing up Fighting: Bakersfield Hockey Vol. 1. Participating bands include: The Filthies, Rocky Nash, Dirty Spanglish, Whiskey Galore, Three Chord Whore, Sioux City Sarsaparilla, Fatt Katt and the Vonzipper, The 28s with Heath Dobbler, Mento Buru, Myndsick, and Sick Trigger.
